This form is to be completed by the nominee, signed and dated in the appropriate places and forwarded to the club secretary one month before the Annual General Meeting of the EVCC for which the nomination is to apply.

Members may nominate themselves for more than one position, these can be listed on the one nomination form.

Where more nominations are received for a position than there are positions available a process will be undertaken to determine how to resolve the situation and appoint someone to the role, this may be offering joint holding of the role or may be decided by a vote of the membership that is in attendance at the AGM or by any other means the nominees and/or the membership decide.
